Facts About Kentucky Illiteracy.

Kentucky alone, Delaware excepted, is the only State in the Union that has no State University. Why do we stand idly by and see our sister States, of far less wealth in natural resources, outstrip us in educational advantages?

Only two other States have a greater percentage of illiteracy. Out of the twenty-five thousand common school trustees in the State, five thousand of them are unable to read and write.

Many say that our great percentage of illiteracy is due to a great degree to our large colored population, but only a glance at the national census report will prove too clearly that were it not for the colored population the percentage would be even greater than now.

These facts should not discourage us, but only prove a stronger incentive to a nobler and grander effort for higher education as well as public education, since the education of the masses is directly proportional to the higher education.

While this State is discredited by her educational inferiority in that she has no State University, not a well developed school system and in many other respects it is yet encouraging to know that there is an earnest and growing demand for an institution of higher title and grander in proportions and wider in usefulness than the State College.

Saloonkeeper Fined.

At Midway, Ky., Keene McGinnis and S. M. Noel, who conducted a saloon before the local option election law went into effect in the county, under indictment in the Woodford Circuit Court for misnance, pleaded guilty and by agreement the law and facts were submitted. The court fixed a fine of $250 against each, which, with the costs, amounted to a total of $508.80. The other indictments against them for selling liquor to a minor were dismissed.

HAGER DECLARES FOR TEMPERANCE

Heartily Approves County Unit Measure.

Favors Further Development of That Statute.

Democratic Nominee For Governor Announces Stand.

WOULD ENFORCE SUNDAY LAW.

Special from Frankfort to the Courier-Journal says:—In a letter addressed to the editor of the Kentucky Issue, Judge S. W. Hager, Democratic nominee for the office of Governor of the State, declares that if elected to the office, he will "favor and encourage the enactment of all reasonable and practical measures that make for and truly advance the cause of temperance."

In forceful language he adds that the county unit local option law has his hearty approval, and he will favor the development of that statute to fully meet the demands of the people of the State.

WILL ENFORCE SABBATH LAWS.

He further says that he will stand for the strict enforcement of the laws, and will "exhaust every prerogative of the office in seeing that the laws relating to the proper observance of the Sabbath are enforced."

Judge Hager's letter to Editor Kelly is in response to one written by the latter making inquiry as to the Democratic candidate's views on the question of temperance, the further extension of the county unit local option statute so as to strike out the privilege now enjoyed by the cities of the first four classes, and the enforcement of the Sunday closing laws of the State. The letter from Mr. Kelly was written on May 20 last, and the response of Judge Hager on May 25 following.

Judge Hager's letter went directly to the office of the newspaper, but Mr. Kelly was absent in the East at the time and the letter did not appear in the June issue of the paper. For that reason and because the issue is published only semi-monthly, it was determined to make the correspondence public at this time.

LETTER ASKS POSITION.

The letter from Editor L. C. Kelly, of the Kentucky Issue, to Auditor Hager reads as follows:

Louisville, Ky., May 2, 1907.—Hon. S. W. Hager, Frankfort, Ky.—Dear Sir: Never having seen a statement from your pen or heard an expression from you as to how you view the question of temperance, which is now greatly agitating the State, the temperance hosts in Kentucky are anxious to know what position you will take toward this great issue in the event you are elected Governor of Kentucky.

There are a number of measures vital to the welfare of the Commonwealth which will come before the next session of the Legislature, such as the extension of the County Unit law to apply to all counties alike, by striking out the amendment which permits cities of the first, second, third and fourth classes to vote as separate units on the same day on which the county votes; better enforcement of the Sunday-closing law, and a few minor amendments to existing temperance laws, which will enable a better enforcement of them in local option territory.

At Midway, Ky., a splendid sale of export cattle was made when James W. Parrish sold to a representative of Swift & Co., of Chicago, 137 head, averaging 1,444 pounds at $35. They will be shipped directly from this point to England.

Great advance in purifying elections will come from Louisville election decision.

you would take toward these measures, or similar ones, should they demand your attention as Governor of Kentucky.

Respectfully yours,
L. C. KELLY,
Editor Kentucky Issue.

HAGER EXPLAINS POSITION.

Judge Hager's response is, in full, as follows:

Frankfort, Ky., May 25, 1907.—Mr. L. C. Kelly, Editor Kentucky Issue, Louisville, Ky.—My Dear Sir: I am in receipt of your letter requesting me, through the columns of your paper, to define my attitude toward legislative measures relating to temperance and the better enforcement of the Sunday-closing laws, should such matters demand my attention as Governor of Kentucky, in the event I am elected.

Complying, I will say that I am in sympathy with the best thought and sentiment of our State, and heartily favor, not only the material advancement of our Commonwealth, but its moral upbuilding; and to that end, if elected Governor, shall favor and encourage the enactment of all reasonable and practical measures that make for and truly advance the cause of temperance.

I heartily approve the action of the last Democratic General Assembly in passing the County Unit law, the principle of which I believe to be thoroughly Democratic, and will favor such development of said law as will fully meet the demands of the people of the Commonwealth. I will be in sympathy with a policy that will keep the laws abreast of the moral sentiment of the people.

Being a Democrat I believe in the largest degree of personal liberty, consistent with the general welfare; but on the strict enforcement of the laws I stand "four square to every wind that blows."

When, and in the event I become Governor, my oath will be to faithfully execute the duties of that office. I shall prove true to my oath and duty "to take care that the laws are faithfully executed."

Certainly, therefore, I shall, if necessary, exhaust every prerogative of the office in seeing that the laws relating to the proper observance of the Sabbath are enforced.

Very respectfully,
S. W. HAGER.

State of New York Now Has Supervision of All Public Utility Corporations.

The public utilities bill was signed June 6 by Gov. Hughes. It places under direct State control every public service corporation in the State with the exception of the telephone and the telegraph. It applies not only to the railroads, street railway and subway lines, express companies and gas and electric lighting companies doing business exclusively in the State, but to the business within the State of all railroads or other common carriers which enter the State at any point. The two commissions created by the act will have most sweeping powers in regulating the corporations affected. The bill was urged by Gov. Hughes.

The Court of Appeals decided that the suits of bank deposits made by R. G. Dun & Co., is in Louisville, where the actual deposits were made, and not in New York, the home office of the company. Under the decision the company must pay taxes on deposits.

Delay Has Been Dangerous in Mt. Sterling.

Do the right thing at the right time. Act quickly in time of danger. Buckshot is kidney danger. Doan's Kidney Pills act quickly. Cure all distressing, dangerous kidney ill.

Plenty of evidence to prove this.

T. A. Shen, the well known ex-clerk at the Fordham Hotel, residing on Main street, Paris, Ky., says: "I have had very little experience with proprietary medicines for my kidney trouble, but the successful results I obtained through the use of Doan's Kidney Pills makes me well pleased to give them my hearty endorsement and recommendation. The pains across the small of my back were speedily cleared away, and I am thankful that through our newspapers I learned of Doan's Kidney Pills and procured a box. My health is greatly improved that I cannot but consider Doan's Kidney Pills a remedy of the greatest merit."

For Talkative Women.

In the vestry of the church at Walton is preserved a beautiful instrument—an instrument as useful as it is beautiful—made in 1632. It is called a scold's bit, a bridle, and is intended as a gag for a lady of many words. It is inscribed with this couplet:

Chester to Walton presents a little.
To curb women's tongues that talk too often.

This charming instrument was presented to the church by a gentleman who lost an estate through the loquacity of a woman.

Wheat Conditions Not Favorable.

The Agricultural Department's crop report shows spring wheat conditions on June 1, 1907, 88.7% compared with 93.4 for the corresponding date last year. The acreage shown in the United States in 1907, Spring wheat 16,464,000, a decrease of 1,242,000 bushels, or 7 per cent, as compared with last year; winter wheat 77,4 as compared with 82,7 on June 1, 1906.

The total acreage of oats 491,000 acres, an increase of 52,000 acres, as compared with acreage shown last year. The acreage of oats on June 1, 1907, was 81.6% against 85.9 last year; the acreage of barley is less than that of last year by about 171,000, or 2.7 per cent; the condition of barley is 84.9 against 83.3 this time last year; the condition of rye is 88.1 this time last year.

Judge S. W. Hager, Democratic nominee for Governor, having been asked to give to the people of Kentucky his views on the temperance issues, gives a clear, concise reply in language free from any double construction. He favors the "County Unit" law passed by the last Legislature, will favor its development in order to meet needed requirements, keeping abreast with the best moral sentiment of the people. He stands for the strict enforcement of the laws. Will faithfully execute the laws, and if necessary, will exhaust the prerogatives of his official office in the enforcement of laws relative to the observance of the Sabbath. These are bold, manly declarations, in answer to questions propounded by Mr. Kelly, editor of the state temperance organ, and will be satisfactory not alone to him but to every sincere temperance voter of the state. Any man with doubts as to the position of Judge Hager after these public utterances is minus the ability to construe language or would willfully misrepresent. We shall expect a greater victory by reason of these manly utterances, to be followed by a moral sentiment that will send the open saloon to the past to be known only to history.

CONVENTION.

The Republican State Convention meets in Louisville today. Indications are it will soon be over. A. E. Wilson, of Louisville, will be nominated by acclamation, as about nine-tenths of the delegates are instructed for him. Senator Cox, of Maysville, appears sure of the Lieutenant Governorship. We are informed that the convention will adopt a temperance platform. Some say they will, some say they will not name Kentucky's choice for President. The assembly promises to be harmonious.

WOLFE COUNTY ITEMS.

Campbell Court or.

Appointed Commissioner of the Court of Appeals.

The Court of Appeals Thursday agreed to appoint William Rogers Clay, of Lexington, as Commissioner of the Court of Appeals, to succeed John D. Carroll, of Henry county, recently appointed to succeed Judge James E. Cantrell, resigned.

The office was created at the time Judge Cantrell failed in health, the object being to eliminate the necessity of the Court of Appeals falling behind.

Mr. Clay was born in Fayette county November 9, 1864. He entered Kentucky University, from which institution he received the degree of B. A. with the class of 1885. Mr. Clay's work here did not satisfy him and he matriculated in Georgetown University at Washington, D. C., where he received the degree of L. L. D. in 1888. In 1889 he had conferred upon him the degree of Master of Laws.

He was Superintendent of Public Schools of Lexington for several years. Nearly four years ago he was made City Solicitor for Lexington, and has held that office with distinction ever since.

Mr. Clay is one of Lexington's most eloquent speakers and his name as an after-dinner speaker is ar-reaching.

Lightning struck and fired the tank house of the Tecumseh Oil and Gas Co., containing two 250 barrel tanks. House and tanks around about 200 barrels of oil. Loss, $750.

The heavy rain, Friday, June 7, played havoc with the Mountain Central Railroad. From the mountain, two miles from Campion Junction, the track is covered up and washed out so that the train cannot run over it. The train only makes the trip to the top of the mountain, where the passengers and mail carrier take it a foot on the creek.

Chimney Top Creek went wild, doing considerable damage to growing crops, washing away the dwelling of Robert Hale with all the household effects. The family saved themselves by taking refuge in the hills. Chimney Top narrow gauge R. R. was completely washed away.

A Mt. Sterling news item in Sunday's Lexington Leader, in speaking of Robert Hocker, a negro who killed a Fayette county farmer, Mr. Veal, says:

"Hocker was located in Mt. Sterling Saturday morning and was trailed to Ewington station by C. & O. detective Tipton, of Frankfort, and Deputy B. F. Burkley, of Lexington. When overtaken by the officers he immediately escaped to the bushes and cliffs."

Now, think of that; bushes and cliffs at Ewington.

KENTUCKY CROP REPORT.

Crops of all kinds are far behind and in most cases anything but promising. And to add to the damage done by frost and cool, damp weather, the cut worms were never more plentiful and destructive. The army worm has done destructive work in a large part of the State. Old meadows, pastures and many wheat fields fell an easy prey to their ravages. In some localities corn fields and early planted tobacco were damaged by them.

Much corn land has not been planted on account of too much cold and wet, and many fields of the early planted had to be planted over. The acreage compared with a five year average is 96 per cent. Condition is 77 per cent.

The acreage of wheat is 90 per cent. Condition is 82, a falling off of seven points since our May report. The out crop is a little short and is off in condition from 83 in May to 79 at this time. Hemp is 83 per cent and 90 in condition.

There is general complaint of a scarcity of tobacco plants. It looks now that it will be impossible to plant a full crop and much of that will be late.

The scarcity and high price of stock peas has cut the acreage of that crop.

Apples promise about a third of a crop and peaches nearly a failure. The berry crop promises fair yield.

June Court.

About 1200 cattle on the market. The quality was common. Prices high, especially for heifers. Trade was a little slow, buyers being shy to pay the high prices asked. There was nothing on the market but light weight steers. 700 lb. steers sold at 4 to 4½. Yearlings at 4 to 5c. Heifers at $3.60 to $4.24, the latter price for fat stuff. Cows at $3.25 to $4. Bulls at $3 to $3.25. Small crowd at the pens and sales were slow, except for heifers and cows. They were brisk. We caught a few.

MULES.

Very few mules on the market and sales were few. Prices strong. Dick Ratliff sold a fine pair of 4 year old mules to a Mr. Ratliff, of Pike county, at $500. THE LINE BETWEEN

Stein-Bloch and Hamburger Clothing

And other ready-to-wear clothing is so great that even poorest judges of merchandise can at once see the difference, to say nothing of the discriminating buyer, who long ago learned that all things are classified and that all standard goods are labeled. The labels on the Stein-Bloch and Hamburger Suits stand for a half century's work, worry, system, and knowing how; a half a century's combined efforts of labor and capital, to make and keep them the foremost ready-to-wear clothes in the world. They stand today in a class that is strictly their own, and of their own making, they are different, and if they were not different they would not be here; and again, if Walsh Bros. could not sell different clothes from other stores, they would not be selling clothes. To the man who lives in this great country, who is carrying the high-priced tailor's burden, or shoddy tailor's raiment, we know there is a reason for your sorrow. Perhaps some years ago you bought ready-to-wear clothes from some unscrupulous store who cared not for fit, style, fabric, or you, and you have since camped out. We want you; we want you to return to ready-to-wear clothes, to come to our store and see the great progress your country has made in the tailoring of ready-to-put-on apparel. It is worth your while, and the more discriminating you are the more capable you will be of appreciating the art of our offerings.

COME TO-DAY.

The great Stein-Bloch Suits and Outing Suits in the new English sack coats, made with broad, elegant shoulders, new style set pockets, new style cuffs on sleeves, with deep gorge collars and broad lapels, closing with 3 buttons; that are set very close together; new 3 and 4-button vests with or without flaps on pockets; and the latest cut trousers that are especially tailored for spring and summer wear. The greys, blues, browns and tans which are so popular this season in fabrics for men's clothes show up beautifully in the English Sack, Stein-Bloch Suits as low as

$18 and up to $30.

The Newport Sack, the Sagamore Sack are two of the latest creations from the tailor shops of Hamburger. These garments are swell things for young fellows who want extremes in their clothes. The fabrics are the latest things shown in the New York market, and have just come in by express. Gun Club Checks, Chain Weaves and Shadow Plaids in Racing Colour Cassimeres. The fabric here used in these garments has no equal for its shape-retaining qualities, the broad shoulders and curved lines of Hamburger's garments cut out the figure of the youth as no other clothing can.

SUITS FROM $15 to $30.

OUTING COATS and TROUSERS, $10 to $20

The celebrated Hopkins Straw Sailors and Panama hats are now on sale. We show the only line of straws coming direct from the makers and the largest line in the city. The new bleached enameled process used by the Hopkins people gives life and luster to the straw. Their styles are authority and their hats are sold by the best stores everywhere. We have the sole agency for Hopkins Straws and Panamas here.

The Manhattan Shirt, the Eclipse Shirt and our own Custom Goods offer a collection that comprises every want of man in shirts. The colorings, the combination weaves, the interlining of stripes and bars, the bold plaids cover every inch of shirt thought. We carry all sizes and sleeve lengths. We show the separate collar and attached collar styles with plain or turn-back cuffs, shirts cut open front or open back. Our large collection enables to fit and suit every customer. A look here will satisfy.

Apples Preserved in Ice.

J. C. Braunbeck, of Wallis Run, Lycoming county, adopted a unique method of preserving his apples last fall. He built a bin in the orchard seven feet wide, fourteen feet long and three feet high. In the bottom of this he put straw, then filled it with apples, putting straw on the sides and ends. Then he placed straw and cornstalks on top. He dug a ditch around it to keep the water from standing there. Some water, however, found its way through the top and formed ice about each of the apples, but they were not disturbed until the ice had all melted. The apples are now sound, crisp and without a wrinkle.—Philadelphia Record.

It is now possible under the new laws of Tennessee for the saloon licensees in the large cities of that state to be raised to $1,500. If this is done a number of the cheaper and more lawless saloons may be closed, but that will only enhance the danger of the so-called decent and respectable places by giving them a firmer grip on the municipalities and heightening the respectability of these places. A saloon is inherently, necessarily, fundamentally dangerous and bad, and no amount of whitewashing and veneering can make it good.

Do You Open Your Mouth?

Do you open your mouth after a young bird and snip down what ever food or medicine may be offered you? Or do you want to know something of the composition and character of that which you take into your stomach whether as food or medicine?

Most intelligent and sensible people now-a-days insist on knowing what they eat and what they drink. This he feels he can well afford to do because the ingredients of which his medicines are made are simple and understood. He will tell the superior curative virtues he introduces.

For the cure of most diseases of the human frame there are derangements giving rise to frequent headaches, backache, dragging-down pain or distress in lower abdomen, or pelvic region, pains, asthma, with or without distinating pelvic, catarrhal drain and kindred symptoms of weakness. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a most potent and effective remedy in effecting a cure in painful periods, in giving strength to nursing mothers, in curing the expectant mother for baby's coming, thus rendering childbed safe and comfortable. It is a most potent and effective prescription. It is also a soothng and invigorating nerve and tissue nervous exhaustion, prostration, convulsions, hysterics, spasms, cholera or St. Vitus' dance, and gout. It is a most potent and effective remedy based upon functional and organic diseases of the distinctly feminine organs.

As a physician and teacher of the several schools of practice, recommend each of the several ingredients of which Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is composed as a cure for the disease for which it is claimed to be a cure. You may read what they say in the Medical Times and you will request for a free booklet of extracts from the leading authorities to Dr. R. P. Pierce, 1000 Main Street, the First Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., and it will come to you by return post.

Should We Smoke?

There are a few men in the world—and even in this progressive age, many women—who have never known the pleasure of caping a well-ordered dinner with a well-selected cigar. To these the best dinner is as a rose without perfume, compared with what it is to the man who loves his cigar wisely but not too well, and knows how to draw the line judiciously, indulgence and injurious excess, between temperance and total abstinence. Because of these facts there is a large proportion of the total population of the earth that clings to the consolations of tobacco, despite the philosophy of the pathologist, and among the unregenerate we commonly find the physician, who would heal others with his advice, but refuses to heal himself in accordance therewith. It is cheering to the smokers to hear occasionally from some well-informed source an opinion in behalf of tobacco as a knitter up of the raveled sleeve of care and "tired nature's sweet release."

Dr. Nalpasse, a French physician and savant, for who shall be denied the last distinction if he rises to maintain that Nicotine is not the seventh devil that besets the path of pitifully trodden by mankind?—says that tobacco is not an unmixed evil, and that a good cigar after a good dinner, jingeth a whole man, or words of similar import.

Of course, growing children and teething infants should not smoke, according to Dr. Nalpasse; but a few cigars a day, and more especially the perfecto that follows walnuts and wine, may be smoked by any healthy man without injury to his organs and without any considerable risk of reducing his days in the land below the period of the life of the average man, who has obeyed the Scriptural injunction to honor his father and mother.

This opinion is endorsed by a Philadelphia physician, and since the wisdom of the Philadelphia lawyer had molded a proverb, are we to question the wisdom of a Philadelphia physician—of the law or physicians of a lesser breed?

Says the Philadelphia physician—a modest man who has foregone the pleasure of having his name handed down in history, by making his statement anonymous: "Most persons experience bad results, because they do not know how to smoke." Reasonable! Here is the wisdom of the Teuton applied by the Gaul to the smoker's problem and endorsed by the American. Your German knows that there is the finest quality of truth in the very letter of the rule in Holy Writ that he that riseth up in the morning and followeth after strong drink sows the seeds of folly and reaps a harvest of woes under a law of Nature as inexorable as the law of gravity. He may sing and drink from dusk until the shank of the evening, but avoids the insidious dangers of the "eye-opener" as he would a pestilence.

A cigar grown cold and relished is unwholesome, says the Philadelphian. He fails to add that to a discriminating palate it is like the second cup of coffee that however well made lacks something of the flavor of the first, if only by reason of some small difference that would not have been a defect had the order of the cups been reversed. The delighted cigar smoked down to the wet butt, and the butt chewed after the cigar is half smoked, are full of danger, according to this authority, but a good cigar kept lighted until the fire-line has reached the third quarter of its length and then thrown away, may actually cure dyspepsia. Persons who are nervous, or whose heart is weak, or whose lungs are bad, should not smoke at all.

Clipped of its scientific terminology and boiled down to its essentials, the advice of Dr. Nalpasse and the Philadelphia physician is that only healthy persons should smoke temperately and intelligently. Here science and horse sense walk hand-in-hand. It is not the taking of the goods the gods provide that brings disaster, but not knowing how to avoid making a luxury a curse. The conclusion might be arrived at as readily by an intelligent artisan as by a man of science, but the scientist alone can speak with authority upon such matters, and therefore Dr. Nalpasse and his indorse are the creditors of the smoking fraternity for having put the hallmark of approval upon tobacco used temperately.—Exchange.

It Takes Nerve

Everything depends upon your nerves. It is nerve force that causes the brain to direct the motion of your body; it is nerve force that causes your heart to pulsate, and your blood to circulate in your veins; it is nerve force that causes your stomach to digest food, your kidneys to filter the blood, and the liver to secrete bile.

In fact, nerve force is the power that runs your body, so if you feel worn-out, irritable, nervous, cannot sleep, or eat well, cannot pain or misery anywhere, your nerves are weak, and your system rundown. To restore this vitality take Dr. Miles' Nervine which will strengthen and build up the nerves. You cannot be healthy without strong nerves.

For every disease Dr. Miles' Nervine and Anti-Pain Pills have been found to be the best. I have tried life, while raising children, my nerves became all the time fatigued, and my appetite, indigestion, very bad, and had such aches, dizzy spells, &c. Then I met Dr. Miles' Nervine, and at once I began to improve in health.

TARIFF REFORM

Not the Paramount Issue, Says Bryan.

Trusts and Railroad Question More Important.

Nebraska Guest of Democrats of New York.

William J. Bryan's stay in New York was marked by an address at the Board of Trade and Transportation and an interview he gave on the issues of the next presidential campaign.

Trusts, the railroads and the next will be the issues in the next presidential campaign in the opinion of Mr. Bryan. He regards the outlook for the Democratic party for next year as very good.

In the course of an interview he was asked to give his idea of a progressive Democrat, and he replied:

"In every country there are two extremes in politics—the radical and the conservative. It is the aim of the progressive Democrat to steer a middle course between the two and to take up all great measures and solve them. This year I find the Democratic party to be in excellent condition and more united than ever, while on the contrary the Republicans are divided. There are two elements in the Republican party, one which I might call the extremists, and the other the 'stand-patters,' the latter representing those people who have put their hands in the other people's pockets and wish to keep them there."

TARIFF REFORM.

Asked if he considered the question of tariff reform as essential to the Democratic platform for the coming campaign, Mr. Bryan replied:

"I have been a tariff reformer for years; I have talked tariff reform for ten years prior to the campaign of 1896; I believe in it now, and have always believed in it, but there are other questions before the people relatively more important at the present, such as the trusts, railroads, etc. I believe that the Democratic party in its national platform will take cognizance of all three of these questions, but, in my opinion, the tariff will not be the paramount issue."

"The financial issue is not the same now as it was in 1896. It is not due to the Republican party, however, but to natural causes, such as the world's increase of gold supply, which has accomplished in a measure what I tried to accomplish in the campaign of 1896. As a matter of fact, we are all reformists now. The dollar of today is not the dollar of 1896. The dollar of today is at least 30 per cent. less in purchasing power than in 1896. The cost of living has greatly increased, so that the face value of a dollar today does not at all compare with the purchasing ability of eleven years ago."

Mr. Bryan reiterated his belief in the principles of the initiative and referendum and municipal ownership.

A FARMER'S COMPLAINT.

In his address before the Board of Trade and Transportation, where he was entertained at luncheon, Mr. Bryan spoke on the relations between the farmers and those engaged in trade and transportation.

"There has been a great deal of misunderstanding between the farmers and those engaged in trade and transportation," he said. "We must get together. The farmer is at the foundation of all wealth. Trade is essential to progress and the farmer knows it. There is no feeling of dislike on their part of those with whom they have trade relations. They have need of you gentlemen and the trade. But they hold in economy of things that you must furnish them certain things for a just compensation—they want you to let competition settle the amount of compensation.

For Nervous, Over-worked and "Run Down" Women

Women in an exhausted, nervous state, due to over-work, continuous social functions or a general "run down" condition of health, often wonder why tonics and emulsions fail to benefit them. The reason is plain. Tonics and emulsions are good in their place, but they cannot build up the body until the nerves have been toned and quieted.

There's only one remedy that can restore health to women in this exhausted, nervous condition, because it acts directly upon the nerves.

Rexall

Americanitis Elixir

is the only remedy of its kind in existence. As its name implies, it's a specific for the peculiar exhausted nervous conditions resulting from the continuous rush and tension under which Americans live. This remedy fills an important gap in the line of medicines.

Rexall Americanitis supplies to the body just those elements which Nature cannot supply in sufficient quantities to meet the unnatural drain upon the nervous system.

Phosphorus in soluble form, is the basis of this splendid nerve food. Thousands of women have been saved from nervous prostration by the prompt use of Rexall Americanitis. To all conditions of nervous derangement, exhaustion and debility it brings permanent relief.

The Story of Rexall

REX means "king" and the Rexall Remedy is the "King of all."

We have proven time and again that Rexall Remedy does more for the body than all others.

For more than two years an expert travelled all over the world in search of the best and most effective remedies.

When he found the remedy, perfect he put it in a prescription, but it was not successful as a remedy, all remedies had been thoroughly analyzed by the pharmacists and physicians of the United Drug Company.

GLOOMY OUTLOOK.

June Crops Backward and Give Little Promise.

Cut Worms Get in Work and Cool Weather Retards All Farm Work.

A gloomy outlook for crops of all kinds is the tenor of the June report of the State Agricultural Department, issued by Commissioner Hubert Vreeland. Crops have been retarded by frost and cool damp weather, and cut worms and army worms are reported as plentiful and doing much damage in some sections. Much of the corn land has not yet been planted and there are reports from many sections of shortage in tobacco plants and only a small per cent of the crop planted.
